Annual Homecoming Draws Large Crowd

DISTINGUISHED GRADUATES who were special honored alumni on homecoming day were Louisiana Supreme Court Justice John B. Fournet and Louisiana Adjutant General Erbon Wise, both of whom made short addresses at the alumni luncheon. The group above includes Judge and Mrs. Fournet, President Kyser, and Gen. and Mrs. Wise.

Over 1000 graduates and former students returned to the Northwestern State College campus Saturday, Nov. 14, in observance of the 71st annual homecoming celebration of the 81-year-old school.

Honored classes of the day were the classes of 1894, 1904, 1914, 1924, 1934, 1944, 1954, and 1964. Dormitory, float, and luncheon decorations carried out the theme of "55,000 Strong," representing the number of graduates of the historic old school.

Climax of the day for many was the annual homecoming football game. A capacity crowd in Demon Stadium witnessed the game in which the Northwestern Demons were defeated by the Bulldogs of the University of Southwestern Louisiana by a score of 27-17.

The homecoming luncheon featured, in addition to honor classes, the recognition of two distinguished alumni and the conferring of an honorary alumni membership. Distinguished alumni were La. Adjutant General Erbon Wise and Chief Supreme Court Justice John B. Fournet, both of whom gave short addresses. Gen. Wise is a 1941 graduate and Judge Fournet was a member of the class of 1915.

Honorary membership in the NSC Alumni Association was conferred on Douglas Fowler of Coushatta, State custodian of voting machines, in recognition of his outstanding work and contribution to the growth and development of the College.

W. Ray Scott of Natchitoches, alumni president; Herschel Russell of Shreveport, vice president, and Joe W. Webb of Natchitoches, executive secretary, were all re-elected to serve in 1964-65. Members elected to the board of directors included Van D. Odom of Monroe who was elected to a second term and Robert Lee of New Orleans.

Morning events included an 8 a.m. registration and coffee, a 9 a.m. meeting of the Alumni Board of Directors, and the annual homecoming parade at 10. Science exhibits were on display in the science buildings between 8 and 11 for the visitors.

Pre-game ceremonies got underway in Demon Stadium at 1:40 p.m. and featured the presentation of Homecoming Queen (See HOMECOMING, Page 2)

Grid Season Ends With 4-5 Record

Northwestern's 1964 football squad ended its season Saturday, Nov. 21, with a 37-21 loss to Southeastern here. After opening with four wins in their first five contests, the Demons dropped four straight games to Gulf States Conference opponents.

The gridders ended with a losing record of four wins and five losses over-all and only one win and four defeats in the GSC for second to last place in the standings.

Wins were over Stephen F. Austin, Louisiana College, Northeast, and Ouachita Baptist while losses were to Louisiana Tech, Abilene Christian, McNeese, Southwestern, and Southeastern.

Although the Northwestern offense averaged close to 23 points per game, the defense failed to stop five opponents sufficiently to gain wins.

Former Students Honor Fredricks With Luncheon On Homecoming Day

Homecoming Day, Nov. 14, was the occasion of an appreciation luncheon for A. A. Fredricks by a number of his former students who attended the old Normal School as far back as the early twenties.

The common thing that brought these men together was their association with the Agriculture Department of the College. Each of these men worked his way through school under the supervision of A. A. Fredricks, when he was head of the Agriculture Department, and later president.

Mr. Fredricks, president emeritus, has been associated with Northwestern State College for approximately a half century. He graduated with a two-year certificate in 1912, and in 1919 returned to the College as professor of rural education in the Agriculture Department, in charge of the dairy and farm. He served with the Agriculture Department until 1934 when he was elected president of NSC, a position he held until 1941. It was during Fredricks' administration that the College made progress in many respects, including the consummation of a $3.5 million building program. As a tribute to his fine leadership, and because of the admiration of the student body, the Potpourri was dedicated to him in 1940.

Mr. Fredricks has served the citizenry of Louisiana in other capacities too numerous to mention. He was State Senator from 1932-1944, and a member of the State Board of Education from 1949-1956.

At an age when most people have already retired, he is very active as a special agent for the Kansas City Southern and the Louisiana and Arkansas Railways.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Fredricks, other guests included their daughter, Emily, and her husband, Dr. T. B. Wofford, and the Wofford children, Cynthia, Emily, and Marcy. Alumni attending with their wives were: Leon W. Gamble, '33, of Baton Rouge; T. R. Fomby, '30, of Minden; L. C. Lee, '29, of DeRidder; Woodward Barr, '39, of Atlanta; Dr. L. F. Fowler, '30, of Natchitoches; Hugh Foil, '28, of Franklin; B. C. Norsworthy, '28, of Natchitoches; Troy Britt, '31, of Many; Roy Alford, '28, of Many; A. B. Porter, '27, of Ruby; Coleman Martin, '29, of Natchitoches; Frank M. Rougeot, '35, of Orange,

A. A. FREDRICKS

Tex.; A. A. Barnard, '30, of Ruston; Joe Cawthorn, '32, of Mansfield; and W. J. Bullock, '36, of Natchitoches.

The meeting was held in the Northwestern Junior High School on the west campus. Coffee was served from 10 to 11:30 a.m., followed by a luncheon from 11:30 to 12:30.

The group presented Mr. and Mrs. Fredricks with a piece of luggage. Needless to say, many fond memories were recalled.

It is significant to note the fact that the men listed above all worked their way through school under the guidance and supervision of Mr. Fredricks and each has been successful in his field of endeavor.

Douglas Fowler, Sr. Becomes Fifth To Receive Honorary Membership

Douglas Fowler, Sr., Custodian of Voting Machines, State of Louisiana, was made an honorary life member of the Northwestern State College Alumni Association, in ceremonies at the annual NSC homecoming luncheon. He is the fifth person to receive this honor.

Fowler, who is serving his second term as Custodian of Voting Machines, has been known as a friend of the college for many years. His wife, Abbie Marston Fowler, received a two-year certificate in 1925, and a BS degree in the summer of 1959. One of his sons, Jerry, attended Northwestern and was an outstanding tackle for the Demon football team. He received the bachelor's degree in 1963.

With this family interest in Northwestern and concern for the college which is so close to his home town of Coushatta, Fowler has through the years, pleaded the cause of Northwestern and has taken pride in seeing it grow. He has worked tirelessly for the growth of the college and has rendered valuable educational service in its cause.

Fowler attended Louisiana State University and Draughn Business College and from 1952-

Coming off a losing season in 1963-64 when they won 12 and lost 14, the Demons hope to come up with a winning margin this year.

Pre-season squad members include lettermen Emmett Hendricks, Marthaville; Kenny Arthur and David Clark, Natchitoches; Jerry McLaurin, Baton Rouge; Billy Ray, Ringgold; and Sam Watts, Saline. Other squad members are Lester Lee, Natchitoches; Tommy Stewart, Doyline; Alfred LeGrand, Coushatta; Danny Walker, Shreveport; and newcomers Dennis Lewis, Henderson, Ky.; Larry Rivers, Pitkin; and Ken Simmons, Converse.

Cross Country Team Making Title Bid

The Demons are led by British runner Edward Watt, who has won all three of his starts. After a poor showing in two early starts the Demon harriers won meets over Southeastern and McNeese and were scheduled to meet the SLC team again in Natchitoches Saturday, Nov. 21.

Other team members are Tony Ward, Ireland; Bob Dufalo, Trenton, N. J.; Nick Wright, Muscle Shoals, Ala.; Dalton Phelps, Logansport; Jim Phifer, Baton Rouge; and newcomer Tim Poston of Vivian.
